Definition and Importance of Equality

Equality is the state of being equal in status, rights, or opportunities. It is a fundamental aspect of human rights, struck at the core of social justice. Equality promotes fairness and impartiality, striving against discrimination and biases. It shapes our social, political, and economic systems, ensuring everyone has access to the same opportunities and rights.